May Eye Care Center & Associates recently announced two new doctors have joined their team to enhance capabilities as they serve patients in southcentral PA and beyond. Jon Lampkin, MD and Joseph Winberry, Jr., OD are now accepting new patients at May Eye Care's state-of-the-art facility in Hanover.

As one of the region's leading medical eye care and LASIK and cataract surgical practices, May Eye Care is adding to its medical staff to keep pace with growing demand in the area for eye care services.

"Dr. Lampkin and Dr. Winberry both have strong local ties to central PA and an outstanding track record of success in leveraging cutting-edge technology and best practices to care for patients," said Carl J. May, Jr., MD, founder of May Eye Care. "We are thrilled to have them on board and adding to our roster of outstanding medical staff."

Experienced Ophthalmologist Expands Surgical Bandwidth

Dr. Lampkin, MD, is a board-certified ophthalmologist with expertise in cataract surgery and LASIK. Dr. Lampkin has more than two decades of experience in treating ocular diagnoses such as cataract, diabetes, glaucoma, dry eyes and macular degeneration, in addition to the diagnosis of systemic diseases with ocular manifestations. He has extensive experience performing cataract surgery and LASIK with an excellent record of surgical safety and post-operative visual outcomes. He is board-certified by the American Board of Ophthalmology.

Dr. Lampkin graduated from Oglethorpe University with a Bachelor of Science degree in Biology. As a senior he was awarded the school's LeConte Award, given to the most outstanding senior in a Math or Science major. Dr. Lampkin then graduated from the Emory University School of Medicine. He completed his internship year at the Mercy Hospital of Pittsburgh, followed by a three-year-long ophthalmology residency at the UPMC – University of Pittsburgh Eye and Ear Institute.

Dr. Lampkin has traveled to Honduras to perform charity cataract surgery and has performed cataract surgery in India. Dr. Lampkin worked as a computer programmer for several years before going to medical school. As such, he enjoys working with the high-tech instruments and methods that ophthalmologists use in service of precise and predictable results for maximum patient satisfaction.

Skilled Optometrist Lends Clinical Knowledge

Dr. Winberry, Jr., O.D. brings more than two decades of experience to his role at May Eye Care. He specializes in medical eye care and post-surgical care for patients. He earned a Bachelor of Science in biology and a minor in chemistry from Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pennsylvania. He studied photochemistry of the retina at the Cullen Eye Institute, Baylor College of Medicine, Houston, Texas. He earned a Doctor of Optometry degree from the Illinois College of Optometry.

Dr. Winberry served as President of the Central Pennsylvania Optometric Society and Secretary-Treasurer of the Pennsylvania Optometric Association (POA). He was voted 'Optometrist of the Year' by his peers in the Central Pennsylvania Optometric Society. In addition to spending time with his family, Dr. Winberry has a wide variety of hobbies. He is President of the White Rose Motorcycle Club, Spring Grove, PA.
